

Ferns Wills Index, 1800-57 & Wills from the Registry of Deeds, 1709-1826

In 2019 while doing attic renovations and clearing out of paperwork I found an Index of Wills for the Ferns Diocese that I compiled in 1986-7 (I signed it 8th March 1987 with my then and parent's address) and lodged in the Public Record Office, now the National Archives. I decided to transcribe onto an excel work sheet and publish here and send the original laboriously typed out on a manual typewriter to the Wexford County Library. I give the original introduction here (with a few spelling and grammar corrections) and then a few comments from the transcription process. In the meantime I decided to split the index as the original included 40 entries, mostly 18th century, from the published Registry of Deeds Abstracts of Wills, 1704-1832, 3 volumes, edited by Eilish Ellis and P. Beryl Eustace and published by the Irish Manuscript Commission.

1987 Introduction

As well as the Will collection, the Index of Ferns Wills was destroyed in 1922. The Testamentary Calendar states that only 'fragments' remain and this is unavailable for consultation, no attempt has been made to repair it unlike other indexers so it presumably unrepairable.

For the genealogist and historian we have the published Index of Wills to 1800 but noting for after. This is an attempted reconstruction based on various sources in the Public Record Office. These are 1) A partial manuscript list, 2) The printed and individual returns from Diocesan Registries, 3) Indexes of the Irish Will Registers, and 4) Wills in the Registry of Deeds as published in 3 volumes by the Irish Manuscripts Commission.

According to an explanatory note in the beginning of the manuscript list this appears to be a copy of the original will index. I am inclined to think that it is a working list from the actual wills themselves. This list is in various hands and the amount of information given varies. For instance the letter T has more occupations given than other letters. The list covers the letters F to T from the beginning to 1857 and gives testator, address, occupations occasionally, date of will and date of probate. It also lists unproved wills and includes the letter W. When using the published list pre 1800 it is useful to use this list as the date of will and date of probate gives the year range of death. The list F-T appears to be complete when compared to the indexes of the Irish Will Registers.

The printed and individual returns cover Charitable Donations from 1800 onwards. The individual returns were sent by the Diocesan Registrars. As well as the usual details on donations they can sometimes be helpful on relationships. In the case of Alice Kavanagh of New Ross the parents are given.

The Will Registers are the working books of the Department of Revenue presumably for the purpose of assessing death duties. The information contained covers inventories and dispositions to the main legatees. Also given is the address of the testator, date of death, address, name and address of executor. The Public Record Office has the will registers from the last quarter of 1828 to 1839, though the second half of 1834 is missing. The volumes for 1840 and after do not appear to have survived. The indexes from 1828-39 give the name of the testator, name and address of executor and each volume covers two years. After 1840 the upper limit of the value of the estate is given. The will registers only cover probated wills and they would appear to have missed some as some wills that appear in the manuscript list are not covered. These are mentioned when relevant in the following index.

The index appears to be complicated due to the various sources so I give examples and explanations.

Kanavan Thomas, Ballinglion, 1810-10

Testator, address, year of will and year of probate

Redmond Ellen, Camolin, Redmond Jas Ballyangton, 200, 1847-47

Name and address of testator, name and address of executor, upper limit of estate's value, year of will and year of probate

Tanner John, Wexford, 1838/577

Name and address of testator, 1838 is year of probate & 577 is folio number.

Whitty Mary, Enniscorthy, CD 1819

Name and address of testator, Charitable Donations for 1819

Abbot Moredecai, Wexford, 1762 2/409 (Registry of Deeds index)

Name and address of testator, year of registration, volume and reference number

The index is to be used as the basis for research. Index entries can be followed up in the various will indexes in the National Archives, National Library, Genealogical Office, Trinity College, Royal Irish Academy as well as will abstracts in the same repositories. Researches can use Memorials of the Dead, volumes V-X, Brian J Cantwell FRSAI FIGRS. If dates of death can be identified exactly or within a decent range, newspapers can be consulted. For wills after 1857 the will books of the Waterford Registry have survived.

2019 Comments

As it is over thirty years since I compiled the index of these c. 1150-60 names, I will take my younger self's word for it since I don't plan to revisit the research. I have transcribed as found with slight re-organisation for the current excel template. Counties outside Wexford are only given if in the indexes. If doing this now, I probably would have a little more explanation of the process and the sources. Information on the sources can be found on the National Archives website. Since then, Eneclann have published CDs on Irish wills and administrations; their catalogues can be consulted on their website.
