

Derrylossary Tithe Applotment, 1822

The 1831 parish Tithe Applotment Book is online on the National Archives (Ireland) website and is identical to the copy held by the Church Representative Body Library, Dublin. There is an earlier set in the Vestry Minutes (a partial extract is on another file) with a list of apploters and two sets of partial applotments for 1822. Generally, throughout the minutes are the annual exact amounts due and collected from each sub-division (these are not necessarily townlands as these were only fixed during the later Ordnance Survey of Ireland, though they often coincide as the surveyors mostly used existing estate and farm boundaries). The sole list of those responsible for the assessment and collection is first and followed by partial and duplicated lists for firstly March and April and secondly for May.

Note that 1) the transcript is in the order given in the minutes, 2) places within each subdivision with no names are not included, 3) partners can also stand for partner, 4) acreages are not given, only amounts in the format of pounds, shillings and pence.  $1/5/4 = \text{£}1, 5 \text{ shillings and } 4 \text{ pence}$ ;  $5/4 = \text{five shillings and } 4 \text{ four pence}$ ;  $4d = 4 \text{ pence}$ . Many amounts include half pennies ( $1/2$ ), farthings ( $1/4$ ) and three farthings ( $3/4$ ) and as this was transcribed into an excel sheet these are given as .5, .25 and .75 respectively, i.e.  $5/4.5$ ,  $5.4.25$ , and  $5.4.75$  is five shillings and 4 four pence halfpenny, five shillings and 4 four pence farthing, and five shillings and 4 four pence three farthings respectively.

The places given are as follows ((2) indicates that the place is duplicated in the second list): Tomriland (2), Roundwood (2), Castlekevin (2), Montiagh, Tomdarragh (2), Togher Big (2), Baltinanima (2), Glasnamullen (2), Ballinastoe (2), Carrighshinnah (2), Clohoge (2), Seven Churches & Killoholan, Seven Churches (part), Ballinacor (2), Drummin, Annamoe & Oldbridge, Laragh, Carrigeenduff (2), Brockagh, Derrybawn, Parkmore, Mullinaveigue & Shramore & Slemain, Raheen, Parkroe, Ashtown (2), and Hill (this last is in the vicinity of Roundwood probably to the west). The above order is per the first list in the minutes and probably the order in which the information was received and written down. No attempt was made to compare the two lists.

Apploters

“That we appoint Mr John Freeman of Freemount and Mr Richard Rossiter of Raheen to be apploters of the Grand Applotment of the Church or Parish Cess for this year and the following persons to applot the sub-divisions of said cess on the several inhabitants throughout the parish and in the failure of their doing so; we constitute appoint & require the church wardens to applot the whole so that there may be no delay in the confirmation of said applotment or collection” 25th February 1822
